

UK Climate Projections Licence Agreement between

Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, Nobel House, Smith Square, London SW1P 3JR (“the Department”)

xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx (“the Licensee”)

in respect of the UK Climate Projections (“UKCP09”), as supplied under the Department for The Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (DEFRA), comprising components of contracts GA01080, GA01099, GA01100, GA01101 and GA01104. (“Data”)

Definitions

Primary Data		means unrefined Data which has not been processed or changed from its original form.
Derived Data		means Primary Data which has been processed and converted into another form.
Restricted Use	Commercial	means the use of the Data to create Derived Data or products for commercial exploitation but not licensing the Primary Data to a third party at a cost above the cost of delivery.
Unrestricted use	Commercial	means Data for commercial exploitation without restriction.

1. In consideration of the Licensee agreeing the following terms and conditions, the Department hereby grants to the Licensee a non-transferable non-exclusive licence to use the UKCP09 datasets¹ as follows:
 - Primary data for bone fide academic research purposes and for restricted commercial use (incorporating the restrictions below)
 - Derived Data for any purpose, including unrestricted commercial use.
2. The Licensee shall not use or permit the use of products derived from the Data for commercial purposes unless they fully and prominently acknowledge the source of the Data as set out under paragraph 8 of this licence and state that the Data is available without cost.
3. The Licensee shall not use or permit the use of the Primary Data for commercial exploitation, business use, resale, or sub-licence to any third party. Written permission from the Department shall be obtained in cases where it is not clear whether the intended use falls into the Derived Data or Primary Data category.
4. The Licensee shall not use or permit the use of Primary Data for transfer to any third party unless the transfer is undertaken without charge above the costs of delivery. You must ensure that any customers that you provide with primary UKCP09 data products have signed up to the UKCP09 licence agreement at xxxxxx. Transfer of primary UKCP09 data products to customers that have not signed the agreement constitutes a breach of the licence conditions.

5. The Crown, as represented by the Department, retains all intellectual property rights on the Data, including, but not limited to, all copyright, all future rights and all rights in the nature of copyright.
6. The licence granted to the Licensee operates as a permission only and does not imply any obligation or liability or any conditions, warranties or representations in relation to the accuracy of the Data, on the part of the Department and organisations² responsible for producing UKCP09.
7. The Licensee acknowledges that the Department has made the Data available on the basis that they reflect current scientific understanding and that the Licensee is aware of the uncertainty described in the accompanying reports available on the UKCIP and Defra websites.
8. The Licensee agrees to use the following acknowledgement in any publication, scientific report or paper arising from use of the Data: "© Crown Copyright 2009. The UK Climate Projections data have been made available by the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (Defra) and Department for Energy and Climate Change (DECC) under licence from the Met Office, Newcastle University, University of East Anglia and Proudman Oceanographic Laboratory . These organisations accept no responsibility for any inaccuracies or omissions in the data, nor for any loss or damage directly or indirectly caused to any person or body by reason of, or arising out of, any use of this data."
9. The Licensee agrees that their name, address, email and any research project titles may be published on the UKCIP, Met Office or Defra websites.
10. Either party shall be entitled to terminate this licence by giving to the other not less than thirty (30) days notice in writing to that effect.
11. This licence shall run from the date of signing of this licence. The Department reserves the right to terminate this licence without notice if the Licensee is in breach of any of the conditions herein.
12. This licence shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and both parties hereby agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
