

BADC conditions of use

- The BADC will store details of what you intend to use the data for.
- The principle investigator(s) for the dataset concerned may be given these details.
- In all publications relating to results using data from the CLAUS archive you are requested to include an acknowledgment of the form: 'These results were obtained using the CLAUS archive held at the British Atmospheric Data Centre, produced using ISCCP source data distributed by the NASA Langley Data Center'.