

Conditions for Data Deposit in the Centre for Environmental Data Analysis (CEDA) Archive

Data creators will be required to agree to the following data deposit conditions before the data are added to the archive. The CEDA Archive is one of the Natural Environment Research Council (NERC) Data centres.

1. The depositor confirms that he/she is the owner of the data and/or has the right to deposit the data in a NERC archive.
2. Ownership of the data remains with the data creator.
3. NERC reserves the right to store the data, and make the data available under appropriate Conditions of Use.
4. The depositor grants NERC permission to, without changing content, translate the data to any medium or format for the purpose of future preservation and accessibility.
