

EXPORT conditions of use

- The BADC will store details of what you intend to use the data for.
- The principle investigator(s) for the dataset concerned may be given these details.
- Users are strongly advised to contact the relevant data provider before making use of any particular data set.
- Users commit themselves to use the data for scientific purposes exclusively. In particular, they will not use them for any commercial or commercially related purpose.
- When using EXPORT data to support your study, you are kindly asked to acknowledge their provider(s) in any subsequent publication.